Fountain Hills Presbyterian Church

Jackie Miles | Outreach Elder

Jackie Miles

There are several FHPC committees this year whose members are discussing and planning a multitude of ways that our congregation and friends can celebrate the 50 years that our church has been active in Fountain Hills.

Session has declared that our “official celebration” will be the week of Sunday Oct. 20 thru Sunday Oct. 27, with a multitude of activities and dining experiences for our members to enjoy.

When my family and I lived in the Los Angeles area in the 1960’s we belonged to the North Hollywood Christian Church, which is now celebrating its 100th anniversary. One of the things their congregation is doing to celebrate is asking its members to write down or e-mail to their office an outstanding memory or event that the church has provided for them. It would be interesting what replies FHPC would have with a similar activity.

One of our celebrations this summer was in gratitude for our long-time pianist Dorothy Parris, who celebrated her 97th birthday this July.

Dorothy, the founding musician of our congregation, is an outstanding musician, piano teacher, and a charter member of the Arizona Masterworks Chorale. She has performed at least three times with various orchestras at Carnegie Hall in New York City. (She leaves our sanctuary early every Sunday in order to drive to Ft. McDowell where she is also pianist for their Presbyterian Church.)

Dorothy Parris

Our Director of Music Debbie Fisher and pianist Dorothy are busy planning an interesting FHPC historic musical presentation for our official celebration concert on the afternoon of October 20. We hope you will plan to attend this production and enjoy their creative talents. As we look forward to our church’s next 50 years, it is hard to imagine all the changes that the technical and scientific advances will bring to our everyday life. And yet, the spiritual concerns and needs that we share today will still be ever important: a need for compassion, generosity, forgiveness, humility, and gratefulness. Our work is cut out for us. Onward and upward!

The Personnel Committee has received a letter from Administrative Assistant, Johannah Fernandez announcing that she will be resigning on August 15 in order to relocate from Fountain Hills.

Session has met and respectively accepted this request with great sorrow. She adapted into her job quickly and professionally and she will be missed. We offer her best wishes, good luck and blessings in turning the page to a new chapter in her life.

Christian Education

Bible Study | Rev. Dr. Bob Simmons

The Center for Biblical Studies is on break until September.

Plan to join with us on September 18 at either 10:00 am in the Fireside Room or 6:00 pm in the Fellowship Center for our new book, "A Hop, Skip, and a Jump Through the Bible" by J. Ellsworth Kalas. This will be an extremely helpful survey of the Bible that will help you put together the message of the Old Testament as well as the New Testament. If you have ever attempted to read the Old Testament and find yourself lost with "when did this happen and what is going on," then you are going to love this book and study.

Mark your calendar and plan to join us on September 18!

The After Worship Bible Class will begin Sunday, September 15 in the Fireside Room. We will continue our study of "From Dust to Glory" by R. C. Sproul. Everyone is welcome and we will journey through the entire New Testament. No need to register for this class, just show up each Sunday starting September 15.

An Interlocking Community

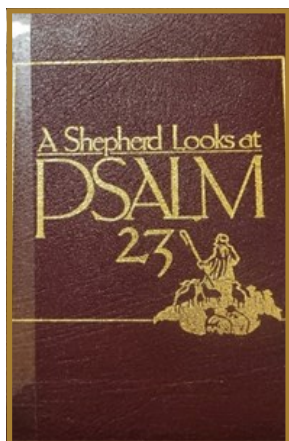

Christ distributes courage through community; he dissipates doubts through fellowship. He never deposits all knowledge in one person but distributes pieces of the jigsaw puzzle to many. When you interlock your understanding with mine, and we share our discoveries, when we mix, mingle, confess and pray, Christ speaks.

Library Footnotes

Book Review | Althea Halchuck

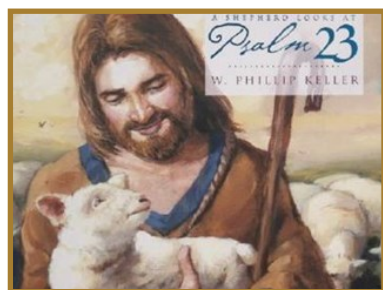

Two Versions: 1970 and 1999

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most famous passages of Scripture. Many have memorized it, and Christians almost always read it at memorial and graveside services. I grew up with the King James version, and that's one of the reasons I was drawn to W. Phillip Keller's A Shepherd Looks at Psalm 23. David is the author of the 23rd Psalm, and he wrote this Psalm speaking as a sheep or as one of the flock. There are two versions of this book in our library. The 1970 version is bound in brown leather and printed in black and white with charming etch-like illustrations by Robert Doares. The 1999 revised version has full-color illustrations, but I feel it lacks the simple charm of the earlier version.

The twelve chapters begin with "The Lord is My Shepherd" and end with "I Will Dwell in the House of the Lord Forever." Phrase by phrase, Keller discusses the 23rd Psalm and draws on his eight years of experience as a sheep rancher in British Columbia to illustrate how God is the Good Shepherd there to protect and guide us through difficult terrain. We are His mere sheep, dependent on Him for our every need. Keller uses his insights from his shepherding days to show parallels between our life as Christians and our loving Shepherd caring for each of us and never letting even one of his sheep go astray. "God and man are those of a father to his children and a shepherd to his sheep."

Follow the author's admonition for the "reader to approach the pages with an open mind and unbiased spirit. If he does, fresh truth and exciting glimpses of God's care and concerns for him will flood over his being." This is an amazing book from both a spiritual and educational perspective. Keller cleverly weaves his knowledge and experience into each chapter. You will learn everything you need to know about the "sheep world" and how the shepherd must be proactive with his flock to maintain their security. As with sheep, there are many obstacles in life to overcome, and it is up to us to follow our Shepherd to avoid its ruts, pitfalls, and hazards. Always follow the Shepherd is good advice for sheep and Christians alike.

Here are some relevant quotes:

"Sheep do not 'just take care of themselves.' They require endless attention and meticulous care. From early dawn until late at night, this utterly selfless Shepherd is alert to the welfare of his flock. For him, there is no greater reward, no deeper satisfaction, than seeing his sheep contented, well-fed, safe, and flourishing under his care."

Willow Springs Lake, AZ July /2024

"It is no mere whim on God's part to call us sheep. Our behavior patterns and life habits are so much like that of sheep it is well-nigh embarrassing. Our mass mind (or mob instincts), our fears and timidity, our stubbornness and stupidity, and our perverse habits are all parallels of profound importance."

“I came to realize that nothing so quieted and reassured the sheep as to see me in the field. The presence of their master and owner and protector put them at ease as nothing else could. When my eyes are on my Master, they are not on those around me. This is a place of peace.”

There is not enough time in a short review to present much detail. You must experience this book for yourself. I guarantee you will never think about the 23rd Psalm (or sheep) in the same way after you read this treasure of a book.

CODE RED

Code: Red Water Drive sponsored by Phoenix Rescue

Mission will run through the end of August. Their goal is to send out 1,000,000 water bottles this summer. Last summer 645 lives were lost due to the extreme heat which is 52% over the year before.

Lives are at risk this summer! No one is in more danger than our homeless neighbors. Together we can help save lives. Fountain Hills Presbyterian Church is the drop off place for our town wide water drive.

A check for $1592.70 has been sent to Phoenix Rescue Code Red for water and more money has been donated. With the money and the cases of water that have been brought in, we have given over 600 cases of water so far this summer. A big thank you to our FHPC family for your generosity. There are three ways to continue to support Code Red: You can bring water to the church and it will be picked up by Phoenix Rescue. The 24 - 16 OZ bottles are what they prefer. You can also contribute directly to Phoenix Rescue on their website at phoenixrescuemission.org/codered. You can also give directly to FHPC and put Code Red on the memo of your check or give cash in an envelope marked Code Red. Let’s continue to support God’s people in need with water during this extreme summer heat. Thank you.

Community House

The Mission committee voted to donate $325 monthly to Community House in Scottsdale to get food for the 3rd Monday in July and August. On Mondays, dinner is served at 5:00 provided by various churches and organizations.

About 80-90 people are served. Churches can bring the food and volunteers will serve it or they can stay to serve and talk with the guests or give money for the meal. The meal provided consists of an entree, rice or potato dish, bread, salad, and dessert. Community House provides the plates, etc. and setup. There is a kitchen with 3 stoves to heat food up. We hope to get a group together this fall to bring the food to Community House and help serve. Let the Mission Committee know if you are interested.

Support Our Troops | Donna Sims

ITEMS NEEDED FOR SUMMER MONTHS – I want to thank one and all who has made summer wear donations so far. Very much appreciated and will certainly come in handy once a pick-up date is made for next week. Normally the truck would have been here a couple of weeks ago but I have been waiting for a piece of furniture to come in and just feel I cannot wait any longer. And I must add that I am totally thrilled with the donations of toiletries that have come in. Wow, thank you so much, this is the greatest need at the moment and I know the truck guys will be speechless. In case you are wondering or have forgotten what summer items are needed, they are tshirts, shorts, cargo pants, hats, socks and toiletries. Please if your heart so desires, help me to help those in need, our homeless veterans, both male and female.

Please remember that our Veterans and Troops Ministry is year-round, it never stops.

We continue to collect gently used clothing, bedding, socks, shoes, hats, jackets, sweatshirts, long pants, small household items and most of all, toiletries. These items are collected for the homeless veterans in Phoenix and surrounding areas.

We are always happy to see Church members and friends from our community placing items in our collection box, located in the Narthex on the East side and in the Church office. Thank you again for remembering our Veterans and our Troops.

A Love Letter From Jesus | Linda Moyer

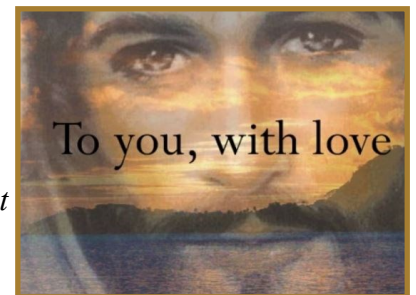

How are you? I just had to send you this love letter to tell you how much I love you and care about you. I saw you yesterday as you were walking with your friends. I waited all day, hoping you would walk and talk with me also. As evening drew near, I gave you a sunset to close your day, and a cool breeze to rest you. Then I waited, but you never came.

O yes, it hurt me, but I still love you because I am your friend.

I saw you fall asleep last night, and I longed to touch your brow, so I spilled moonlight upon your pillow and your face... Again I waited, wanting to rush down so we could talk. I have so many gifts for you.

You awakened late this morning and rushed off for the day. My tears were in the rain. Today you looked so sad, so alone. It makes my heart ache because I understand. My friends let me down and hurt me many times, but I love you. I try to tell you in the quiet green grass. I whisper it in the leaves and tree, and breathe in the color of the flowers. I shout it to you in the mountains streams, and give the birds love songs to sing. I clothe you with warm sunshine and perfume the air. My love for you is deeper than the oceans and bigger than the biggest want or need you could ever have.

We will spend eternity together in heaven. I know how hard it is on earth. I really know, because I was there, and I want to help you. My father wants to help you, too. He's that way, you know. Just call me, ask me, talk to me. It is your decision... I have chosen you, and because of this I will wait... because I love you.

Music Ministry | Deb Fisher

I hope everyone is having a great summer, and traveling safely! We are still in the summer season, although school has already begun. Schedules start to shift, summer to fall, and anticipation grows into realization, and before you know it, we are singing “Silent Night” with candlelight in our hands. This has been happening with this congregation for 50 years!

Presbyterian Church is, was, and will always be loved by God. We know that, for sure. We can prepare for that. I can prepare for that. God wants people here.

Our church’s 50th Celebration is in the stages for the Committees assigned, of trying to put all the 50 years worth of people, and God's love for them, and through them, and our love for God, His Son and His Holy Spirit, and our magnificent stories, all amazing with God included, into a week of special attention. We, all of us, are included in His plan to keep this Sanctuary a beautiful, personal, place of worship together, and try to live out with the reasons why we have flourished for 50 years.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Against such things, there is no law -Galatians 5:22-23

Sharing Our Gifts | Ilene Berg

Monique Reynolds & Pat Willigrod

Each Sunday Pastor Bob reminds us of God’s calling to share our God given gifts – our talents, time and treasure - to spread God’s love throughout the world. The Bible reminds us in 1 Peter 4:10, “Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others.”

Monique Reynolds and Pat Willigrod have responded to this call by graciously offering to share their gifts of floral arrangement so that commemorative flowers may continue to be placed on the chancel each Sunday morning. Jo-Ann Spalding continues to share this responsibility during her seasonal residence in Fountain Hills.

It is only possible to offer commemorative floral arrangements at the cost of $35 because the flowers are purchased separately and arranged by these ladies – no commercial florist could be so generous.

Jo-Ann Spalding

If you wish to honor or memorialize someone dear or celebrate a special occasion or event by placing a floral arrangement on the chancel during our worship service, your dedication will be announced at Sunday’s Welcome and published in The Weekly. There is a sign-up book in the narthex or you may call the office to order your flowers. You may take the flowers following worship service.

Thank you, Monique, Pat and Jo-Ann for sharing your special talents with us!

The Columbarium provides a final resting place for the mortal remains of members and friends. Along with the urn niches, there is a Wall of Remembrance, a waterfall and memorial benches, providing a lovely place for prayer and meditation. It is managed by the Columbarium Trustees, a committee of our church corporation. A trust fund insures proper maintenance and perpetual care of the area.

Covenant Partnership

Are You a Partner in FHPC?

Many of us are familiar with the concept of "Covenant Partners" at FHPC—individuals who have chosen FHPC as their "home church" and have formalized their commitment, granting them full membership rights, including the ability to speak and vote in formal church meetings.

Affiliate Partners: We welcome "Affiliate Partners" in our congregation. This acknowledges a special relationship between you and your FHPC family, supplementing your primary membership at another "home church," perhaps in another state. By becoming an Affiliate Partner, you affirm your active involvement in the life of FHPC. This status allows you to participate in church meetings, speak on relevant issues, with the only limitation being the right to vote. If you're interested in becoming a Covenant Partner with full membership rights or an Affiliate Partner, please reach out to Pastor Bob Simmons or contact the church office at 480-837-1763 to attend an upcoming informational meeting.

The Power of Prayer

If you are ill or recovering, hospitalized or anticipating a procedure, or going through some difficult times, please let us know so that our church family can raise you in prayer.

We publish our Prayer List in The Weekly and include healing prayers during worship. If you prefer not to publicize it, we will respect your privacy.

We have an excellent support system in place due to the diligent efforts of our Pastor and our Deacons. Help us support you through difficult times by calling the office or filling out a prayer request online.
